Prepared by Prof. Sitha SEK

Curriculum of Lesson for HTML, CSS and JavaScript

This lesson for beginners and advanced students and cover 3 parts: HTML, CSS and JavaScript.

HTML

What is HTML?	Overview of HTML along with it's history.
HTML Tags	Descript different types of tags.
HTML Elements	Descript different types of tags.
HTML Fonts	Explain various font types.
HTML Block and Inline Elements	create the logical and semantic layout of a web page.
HTML Formatting	Defines the way of content to improve visual styling.
HTML Quotations	How to include and format quoted text within your web content.
HTML - Comments	non-executable lines of code that do not display on the webpage and are used to add notes or explanations.
HTML - Colors	Very important aspects of web design.
HTML - Images	Understanding image tags, attributes, and responsive design principles is essential for effective web development.
HTML - Tables	Data is displayed in rows and columns.
HTML - Lists	Explain Unordered Lists, ordered Lists and defined List.
HTML Links	Explain Text Links and Image Links.
HTML - Color	Explain Color names and color attributes.
HTML - Forms	Explain different types of form elements.
HTML - Layouts	Explain different types of Layouts.

CSS

What is CSS	Descript why we need Style.
Types of CSS	Explain three types of CSS.
CSS - Units	Descript different units for expressing length and measurement.
CSS - Selectors	How to select the HTML elements.
CSS - Colors	Explain color values in various formats.
CSS - Fonts	customize font style of webpages using various font related properties.
CSS - Formats	How to format all HTML elements by apply different types of CSS.

JavaScript

What is JavaScript	How to create dynamic and interactive elements in web applications.
DOM elements	Describe how to manipulate the webpage elements.
JavaScript - Data Types	Explain different types of data.
JavaScript Variables	How to declare variable in JavaScript.
Arithmetic Operators	arithmetic operators such as "+" for addition, "-" for subtraction, "*" for multiplication, "/ " for division etc.
Comparison Operators	Explain different types of comparison.
Logical Operators	logical operators in JavaScript - && (AND), || (OR), and ! (NOT).
Assignment Operators	Explain how to use and assign values to the variables.
Conditional Operators	Explain evaluates an expression for a true or false value.
JavaScript Control Flow	Explain different types of flow statement.

Prepared by Prof. Sitha SEK

JavaScript Functions	Explain function types, parameters and reusable code that can be called anywhere in your program.
Function with Event Handlers	Explain different types of event.

JavaScript - Array	The JavaScript Array object lets you store multiple values in a single variable.